Thank You

by Erik Haaland, council president

I want to say “thank you” to so many people... I sat in on the group council that studied the structure of our congregation and one thing I learned is how many people who quietly and unassumingly give so much to make this place “work.”

Of course, there’s our wonderful staff and the council, but we get our photos on a wall and folks generally know what we do. Then there are people like Darrell Anderson and Will Stark, who quietly get us $78,000 worth of grant money. There’s Jan Radloff, who faithfully does all the recording of gifts given to the congregation. There are tellers who sit downstairs every week in their secret little room, counting the Sunday offering. There’s that incredible stationery group—those good folks who spend hours upon hours each month making beautiful little cards, selling them, and then supporting Christ Church Lutheran in so many ways. They buy refrigerators and poinsettias and give to our mission partners.

There’s Phyllis Mattill, our dutiful Sacristan. There’s the cadre of folks who help lead and welcome people to worship—the readers, assisting ministers, prayer writers, ushers and greeters. There’s Lucille Buelow and her crew of such competent and seemingly tireless altar guild workers.

Goodness...there’s the choir. There’s Ken Schoenike and Dave Kutzbach, always working on some painting and lighting project around the building. There’s our new member, Bob Davis, who has jumped right in and is now busy getting a bunch of our old chairs fixed. There’s Lynn Larson, who has faithfully produced the Courier each month. There are people like Mary Bode and Joanne Seltz who do so much work and organizing around here they should certainly be on the payroll, but they’re not. They just go on quietly to make all kinds of things happen.

It’s dangerous to do this...who am I forgetting? There’s Cathy Sieving, who cares for the plants all around the church. There’s Michael, who sets up coffee for us every single Sunday, and Josh and Sally, who have worked so hard on our new music series and adult education. There’s Juanita, who sets up the Helping Hands schedules every year. There are the Dunstones, who coordinate rides. And Noah, who brews beer! There’s Marilu and her constant, generous hospitality—and this incredible Christmas cookie project of hers!

We could and should go around thanking everyone—every single one of you—who have served on boards and committees, taught Sunday School, hung out with youth, delivered meals, cleaned up dishes, planted flowers, brought communion to the homebound. It goes on and on, doesn’t it?

All of you: Your commitment makes this community possible. And this community, by God’s grace, is for so many of us such an important sign of God’s presence and love in the world. A sign that God is here—right in the midst of this neighborhood—with mercy and hope abounding. This place is filled with Christ’s light and gratitude abounds.

Volunteer Opportunity

Each year, the International Christian Literature Distributors (ICLD) ship approximately 24,000 pounds of quality, used Christian books, Bibles, and magazines to Africa, India, the Philippines and other developing countries. Christ Church Lutheran accepts your non-denominational donations for this mission.

Please place your donations in the wooden box marked International Christian Literature in the Luther Lounge closet.

We are in need of a volunteer to deliver these donations once each month or so (on a Wednesday or Friday morning) to the ICLD office at 3446 Chicago Avenue in Minneapolis. If this is something you can help with, please contact the church office at 612.721.6611.

Shopping for a Good Cause

Gary and Luann shop for hundreds of dollars of toys for the Plymouth Youth Center children's Christmas gift sale. Thank you, Christ Church Lutheran, for your generous donations to this ministry for children. Most years, donations total $400 to $500. This year, the total was an amazing $1,400!

2013 Calendar for Our Saviour's Housing Meals

In 2013, we have six opportunities to shop, chop, stir, stew, bake, take, share and care for 40–50 adult guests at Our Saviour's Housing (Chicago Avenue and 24th Street in Minneapolis) in 2013.

Our dates are:

- Monday, January 28
- Friday, March 15
- Friday, May 17
- Friday, July 19
- Friday, September 20
- Friday, November 15

We bring a main dish (no pork), a vegetarian choice, a salad or other side dish, fresh fruit, brownies/bars, condiments and beverages (unsweetened iced tea, lemonade, and the all-important four gallons of milk!).

We can prepare the meal in our homes, at church or at Our Saviour's.

In the past, we've served cafeteria-style, but family-style (for three tables of 16) would allow us more time to sit and visit with guests. We just need to get the food there hot by 6:45 p.m. to serve at 7:00 p.m., and cleanup usually wraps up by approximately 8:30 p.m.

Please contact Rachel Mann at 612.729.5664 (text or call) or ms.rachel.mann@gmail.com with your availability and menu ideas.

Thank You Note

We thank everyone at Christ Church Lutheran for making Andrew's Confirmation day, November 25, such a wonderful experience. The service was so uplifting and inspiring.

Special thanks to Andrew's teachers, Vicar Will Starkweather and Daniel Rinehart, for sharing their knowledge and insights each week at class.

Thanks also to everyone who planned and served at the lovely reception in the Luther Lounge. It was so enjoyable talking with so many people there.

Those unable to attend due to illness were in our prayers. As many have stated, it takes a village to raise a child and we are very grateful to everyone who has contributed to Andrew's Christian development over the years. Again, thank you.
